

Book Zeena to speak at your next event!

ZEENA KHAN IS ON A MISSION to uplift and guide the next generation of leaders and career professionals to find their flow and move with confidence. As a woman of Chinese, Fijian, and Indian descent, Zeena grew up in South Auckland before relocating to Wellington. Inspired by her unique background, Zeena's focus is helping professionals find a career path that reflects their authentic self.

Zeena uses her extensive leadership experience to motivate and strengthen professionals who want to take the next step in their career. As a former Toastmasters NZ Area Director, Zeena has a candid and engaging speaking style which helps her relate to a wide range of audiences. Drawing on her professional experience across a diverse range of industries, Zeena empowers others to be successful by showing them how to play to their strengths.

Talking Points

FINDING THE RIGHT CAREER PATHWAY - Using the acronym DRIVE (which stands for Determination, Redirection, Insight, Vibe, and Enthusiasm), Zeena encourages professionals to map their own career path. This comes through learning about themselves, following their passions, and knowing their purpose.

STRENGTHENING RELATIONSHIPS - Zeena shares how teams can build empathy and communication skills to bring their organisation together. She also speaks about the power of building a supportive professional network to create opportunities for growth.

CREATING A MINDSET FOR SUCCESS - In this talk, Zeena discusses the importance of determination and resilience in the face of obstacles. She encourages professionals to invest in themselves and to operate from a place of faith in what's possible.

ZEENA WOULD LOVE TO HEAR FROM YOU!
